Flathead Job Service Employers' Council

WHAT IS JSEC?

- ◆ An advisory committee to your local Flathead Job Service Workforce Center and the Montana Department of Labor and Industry.
- ◆ A public/private partnership challenged with meeting the workforce needs of the community.

The JSEC...

...is a diverse group of local area employers who serve as ambassadors and mentors for the Flathead Job Service Workforce Center. The JSEC has been integral in creating partnerships to improve the quality of the workforce, sustain economic growth and support business opportunities.

Members represent both large and small private employers as well as public sector and non-profit entities.

Membership:

Membership in JSEC is open to all employers who have a sincere desire to promote the Flathead Job Service Workforce Center at the local and state level, share employment related information, provide input for services desired from the Job Service Workforce Center and in general support the community of employers and their businesses. Establishing these committees at the local level allows specific needs of the community to be met.

Local employers meet the third Thursday of the month at noon at the Flathead Job Service and share employment-related information. Guest speakers share expertise on employment-related topics.

There are no fees or dues for membership.

If you would like further information on joining JSEC please contact the Flathead Job Service Workforce Center (406) 758-6200
